Letter from I.M. Fraser, Esq., I.C.S., Collector of Bellary, Ref No.430/42A4 dated 28.3.1942.

Sub: Nagoji late permanent peon, Collector's office, Bellary - Compassionate gratuity - Application of widow - Rukminamma.

Nagoji, permanent peon, Collector's Office, Bellary, died on 2.1.42. The widow Rukminamma has applied for the grant of a compassionate gratuity

2. Detailed information on all the points as required in Board's Resolution No; Misc. 2504 dated 10.8.1931 is furnished below:

He put in a permanent service of 26 years 11 months and 2 days. He had been drawing a substantive pay of Rs.17/- per mensem for 1 year and 10 months at the time of his death. His past conduct and character were satisfactory. He has left behind him a widow, Rukminamma 48 years old, two married daughters aged 20 years and 11 years, one unmarried daughter aged 14 years, who is insane, and one son aged 9 years. The married daughters are living with their husbands. The family consisting of the widow the unmarried insane daughter and the son were all wholly depending on the late peon. He has no other relatives. It is reported that this elder brother will not support them as they were divided and were living separately. Hence she has no other relatives to help her. The deceased possessed no other immovable property. He had no house of his own. He had taken a loan of Rs.90/- from the Government Servant's Co-operative Society, Bellary. The amount of the loan outstanding is Rs.66-8-0. Deducting the share capital of Rs.15/- the net amount of the loan outstanding is Rs.51-8-0. Rukminamma states that she has incurred miscellaneous debts to the extent to Rs. 60/- which are not supported by documents.

The compassionate gratuity if sanctioned by Government may be paid to her at the Bellary sub treasury. Her address is as Below:

Rukminamma, widow of Nagoji late peon, Collector's Office, Maratageri, Brucepetta, Bellary.

3. His case does not come under any of the exceptions mentioned in rule 6 (i) and (ii) of the Madras Compassionate Allowance Rules, 1932 issued in G.O.No. 120 Finance (Pensions) dated 20.1.32. In view of his long service for nearly 17 years and in the circumstances difficulties of the family, I recommend that a compassionate allowance of a sum equal to his 12 months' pay, that is Rs.17 x 12 = Rs. 204 (Rupees two hundred and four only) may be granted to the widow.

4. The service register with the leave account, the application of Rukminamma the record of enquiry and the descriptive roll of the applicant are enclosed.

To

The Collector of Bellary.

Honoured Sir,

Sub: Application of Rukminamma, widow of C. Nagoji Rao, late peon of the Collector's Office, Bellary for the grant of compassionate gratuity.

I, Rukminamma, widow of C. Nagoji Rao, late peon of the Collector's office, Bellary beg to submit as follows:--

My husband Nagoji was entertained as a peon in your department on 1-2-1915 and had put in a total service of 26 years 11 months and 2 days when he died on 2-1-1942. He was drawing a salary of Rs.17/- per month. He has left behind him his widow the applicant and four children of whom one is a son aged 8 years and the other 3 are daughters. Of the 3 daughters two are married and they are living with their husbands and there is one unmarried daughter aged 15 years who is insane. He has not left any property either moveable or immoveable. He was not able to spare anything out of the pay as he was getting a low salary of Rs.17/ per month. He has also left debts to the extent of Rs. 90/-in the Government Servants' Co-operative Society Bellary. He has not insured his life in any of the Insurance Companies. There is no body to maintain me and my children in these circumstances.

In the circumstances I beg to request your honour to kindly recommend my case to Government for the grant of compassionate gratuity under G.O.No. 12 Finance (Pension) Dept. dated 22-3-32 in consideration of my husband's long service in your department. The amount may be ordered to be paid to me at Bellary Treasury.

I beg to remain,
honoured Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

L. T. Kanakaraya
